

Weekly Questions Challenge

1. 'Why do you think this online personality is trusted by their followers?'
2. 'This news story sounds pretty shocking. How could we check if it's really true?'
3. 'You're laughing at this meme, but do you think everyone would find it funny? Why or why not?'
4. 'This advertisement claims their product can do something amazing. What would you look for to check if this is really possible?'
5. 'Why do you think this person wrote such a mean comment under this post?'
6. 'This article says that our behaviour is influenced by what we see online. What's your take on that?'
7. 'This person online is very popular, but they often say hurtful things. Do you think their popularity makes this okay? Why or why not?'
8. 'This post has been shared by a lot of people. Does that automatically mean it's true? How could we verify?'
9. 'This video is showing a point of view very different from ours. What are some positive aspects we can take away from it?'
10. 'This person online is asking for personal information in exchange for a prize. Why might this be risky?'