

Printable 'Troll or No Troll?' Quiz

Instructions: For each scenario below, circle whether you believe the interaction involves a troll or not.

1. Lucy posted a picture of her new puppy on her social media page. A user named "DogLover123" comments, "Such a cute puppy, I hope he brings you joy."

- Troll
- No Troll

2. After sharing her high game score, Alex receives a comment from "GamerGuru98" saying, "You're a cheat, there's no way you could get a score that high legitimately."

- Troll
- No Troll

3. In an online forum about books, Emma shares her favourite book. A user named "Bookworm" responds, "I don't like that book, but I'm glad you enjoyed it."

- Troll
- No Troll

4. John posted a photo of a burger he made. A user named "Foodie5Star" comments, "That looks disgusting, you should never cook again."

- Troll
- No Troll

5. During a live online video game, Mike's teammate "SuperPlayer" says, "You're not playing very well today, but don't worry, we all have off days."

- Troll
- No Troll

Answers:

1. No Troll - The user is being kind and supportive.
2. Troll - The user is trying to provoke a reaction by accusing Alex of cheating without any proof.
3. No Troll - The user is expressing a different opinion in a respectful way.
4. Troll - The user is being deliberately hurtful and provocative.
5. No Troll - The user is offering constructive criticism and encouragement, not trying to provoke an emotional reaction.